

MARINA VILLAGE BREEZE

September 8, 2017

RED SKY AT MORNING...

Hurricane Irma has Florida in her cross-hairs, and as the old adage says, "Red Sky at Morning, Sailors Take Warning".

Today the management team buttoned up the resort in preparation for the storm. Fort Myers Beach is already under a mandatory evacuation notice and we will be closed for Week 36, at a minimum.

Every unit has been made storm-resistant, computers have been moved from the first floor, our boat is sitting in a shed next door at Moss Marine, the elevator is parked on the 3rd floor, the pool and roof furniture is all stowed... and on and on. We are very thankful for the hurricane-rated windows and sliders that were installed in recent years.

Now we wait. Please keep Marina Village in your thoughts!

Thanks,

-- Paul Rosen

3 steps to installing the shutters

The Coast Guard has called home all its boats.

Off the floor!

Here's a sight you NEVER see: a completely empty parking lot!
