YES!! Sooner than we expected

MARINA VILLAGE WILL BE WELCOMING BACK GUESTS ON SATURDAY 10/26.

Most of the beach remains closed... Margaritaville is still pumping water out of its below-ground parking garage... There's a foot of sand covering parking lots at most of the resorts and condos on our end of the island... and the County Park has piles of sand that look just like the piles of snow up north after the plows have finished their work. All in all, pretty strange!

That being said, we will REOPEN to receive our Owners and Guests beginning with Week 43: 10/26-11/2.

ONE CAVEAT: Our elevator #2 is scheduled for repairs on 10/24, with the expectation that it will be back in service shortly thereafter. Therefore, we suggest you PACK LIGHT, as we will be opening whether or not our elevators are up and running.

IN OTHER WORDS,
THE ELEVATORS MIGHT NOT BE WORKING,
BUT FINGERS ARE CROSSED!

So, I again thank our staff for their extraordinary efforts in cleaning up the mess and mud left behind by Milton and in tackling the remaining work that must be completed before we can welcome everyone back on the 26th.

Thank you, and
Best regards,
Paul
